

Victim Looks Up, Bandits Kill Him

Police Tuesday were hunting four gunmen who shot and killed a Pontiac bar patron when he disobeyed their orders and looked up during a holdup.

They said the victim, Richard Anderson, 33, of 37 Stout, Pontiac, was among four patrons in Harold's Bar, 505 South Blvd. East, when it was held up Monday night.

The gunmen ordered everyone in the bar to lie on the floor and then took an estimated $2,000 in cash and jewelry from the bar and customers.

As they were leaving the bar, police said, Anderson looked up. The gunmen fired at least four shots at Anderson. One hit him in the chest, killing him instantly.
